Dear Ms. Murphy,

Please find attached a letter from Arizona Senate Democrats outlining concerns around your administration’s refusal to comply with the Presidential Transition Act and recognize President-Elect Joe Biden as the winner of the November election and the next President of the United States.

Respectfully,
Josselyn Berry

*****
Emily W. Murphy
General Services Administration
1800 F Street NW
Washington, DC 20405
November 23, 2020

Dear Ms. Murphy,

The unique success of American democracy has always hinged on the assurance of a smooth transition of power between Presidents. That transition of power and acceptance has now been called into question by your administration and risks throwing our democracy into needless chaos and upheaval. We write to express our deep concern over your refusal to comply with the Presidential Transition Act and ascertain President-Elect Joe Biden as the winner of the November presidential election and the next President of the United States. We urge you to correct this error immediately.

As Arizona Legislators we are on the front lines of rendering aid and assistance to our constituents and have spent the last seven months advocating for resources to help Arizonans and small businesses survive this pandemic. A delayed transition caused by your failure to acknowledge Joe Biden as the winner directly harm us and our constituents. As of this writing, Arizona has over 300,000 COVID cases and over 6,000 deaths. These numbers are only going to skyrocket over the holiday and flu season and we desperately need a cohesive federal response to combat the pandemic.

According to Stout Risius Ross, a recognized industry leader in analytics, between 112,700 and 120,000 renters in Arizona are at risk of being evicted upon the January 1st lifting of the CDC moratorium. Fully 55 percent of all renters in Arizona, and 62 percent of all renters with incomes below $35,000, are at least somewhat likely to be evicted within the next two months due to nonpayment of rent. Further, Arizona lost nearly 74,000 jobs in October, and more than 345,000 Arizona residents received some form of unemployment compensation, according to the Arizona Department of Economic Security.

The pandemic, and Arizona’s housing and unemployment crisis are only going to worsen in the weeks and months to come. Your delayed acknowledgement of the new incoming president is both unlawful, unreasonable and detrimental to our entire country and it’s system of democracy. Otherwise you risk the stability of our democracy and our ability to protect Americans from the pandemic that is wreaking havoc on our country.

Dear Administrator Murphy,

The Presidential Transition Act empowers you to ascertain the result of the presidential election that took place on November 3, 2020. The result of the election is clear beyond any reasonable doubt. On behalf of the City of Hartford, I am writing to urge you to acknowledge and formally ascertain the result of the 2020 Presidential election so that an orderly, effective transition may begin.

Your failure to recognize President-Elect Biden and Vice President-Elect Harris' victory is delaying the transition process. In the middle of a global pandemic, that delay puts the lives of Americans at risk.

The success or failure of the transition will have direct consequences for the lives of residents in my city. As nearly two hundred public health experts wrote to you last week, the incoming Biden-Harris administration must prepare for a massive, coordinated vaccine distribution effort. In addition, the incoming administration must understand local capacity to test, trace, and treat the novel coronavirus, and review existing mitigation strategies. They must assess the status of existing relief programs and prepare for the implementation of new relief programs that are desperately needed to help thousands of Hartford residents and businesses survive the unprecedented economic disruptions resulting from this pandemic. All of that requires the incoming administration to work hand-in-hand with the dedicated federal civil servants who are doing that work today.

Beyond the concrete and consequential damage done by delaying the transition, your refusal to ascertain the results of the 2020 presidential election is wholly unsupported by precedent or by reason. Your actions provide an unjustified air of legitimacy to unfounded conspiracy theories that are deeply damaging to our nation.

For the good of our country, our democracy, and for the safety of everyone in America, I urge you to ascertain the results of the election and allow an effective presidential transition process to begin immediately.

Sincerely,

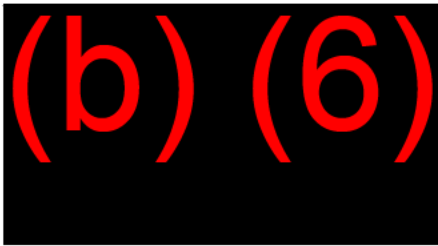

Luke A. Bronin

The linkedin invites I've gotten in the past two weeks that I didn't report as harassments - I'm not sure how to find those I had moved to harassment/spam

	Creative Project	Ignore	Accept	My name is (b) (6) and I've been trying to contact you for the last few days. It seems there has been a delay in you allowing for President-Elect Biden to being his transition. I am wondering what the justification is and why you are pivoting from years of how this has been handled. See less	Reply to Kitton

Dear Emily prt 2,

I do not know if my messages generated inquiry. I did find it interesting when I was a federal intern, how many people wrote the President on all sorts of things, and all the correspondence was stamped, reviewed, filled and processed. It makes one have faith in America that all those crazy voices of the people indeed were found their way to a bureaucratic black hole, but along the way, perhaps they inspired dialog around the water cooler and maybe the sticky wheel got a bit of grease to get a few things moving properly.

One does not know but it does make one consider if one can have a career as a performance artist within such a context.

Well, if my messages have generated a background check, then perhaps you may know of Laquisha Washington and Dave Jenson, the man who murdered her in cold blood after 3 weeks of premeditation with former officer Michael Lutz. If you could be so kind to inquire if something can be done to bring legal redress and thereby inspire meaningful policy to deter and prevent gross misconduct, I would greatly appreciate it.

There are just over 400 billionaires in the world and not one of them ever decided to become Batman. That stinks. So I guess I had to cause the bad thing crossed my path. I sure could use a partner in crime or uncrime the crime of a cop as such is the case. But Laquisha did have the right to peacefully assemble in front of her parents' home and she did not need to be gunned down only to defame high-ranking black officers, and that is what happened.

But that's all another story. (I told you I was eccentric. Hampshire College, UMass.)

Thank you for all you do, Emily. And if you ever want to compare Ted Drews to Kopps custard in MKE, I will discuss Henry Kissinger with you anytime.

We tried reaching out to the USMS and Secret Service at the career level without luck. Is there anyone you can put us in touch with who could help us get this request considered? Happy to discuss over the phone if that's helpful. (b) (6)

I hope you are doing well - I'm emailing you today because the Administrator has asked us to find out the date that former Administrator Tangherlini was confirmed by the Senate and become GSA's permanent director (vice acting )
We need to find this out because we're pretty sure that the date we have for Administrator Tangherlini on a plaque underneath his official portrait in the 6100 wing is wrong The current date we have is 4/3/12 - the Administrator is pretty sure that date is the date he became acting, not permanent
We need to find the correct date so we can get a new plaque fabricated and swap out the current one
We've been trying to get this date since mid-September, but haven't had any luck
I'm thinking that the best official source for this date would be OHRM - I'm assuming that you all must keep records of these dates?
This is something that the Administrator is very interested in getting fixed - any help you can give us in tracking this date down would be really appreciated

Hi Andrew,

In regard to your inquiry, here is our statement:

The GSA Administrator does not pick the winner in the Presidential election In accordance with the Presidential Transition Act of 1963 (PTA), as amended, the GSA Administrator ascertains the apparent successful candidate once a winner is clear based on the process laid out in the Constitution The Administrator's ascertainment is done for the purposes of making services provided by the PTA available Until an ascertainment is made, the statute allows for the Biden Transition Team to continue to receive the pre-elect services from the government (e g , limited office space, computers, background investigations for security clearances) GSA has met all statutory requirements under the PTA for this election cycle and will continue to do so

In light of the ongoing legal challenges that the president’s campaign is running in a number of battleground states, can someone explain the standard GSA is using to determine whether “the ascertainment of the election results” has occurred for the purposes of implementing statutorily-mandated transition processes?

Is GSA going hold off on implementing transition plans until the campaign has exhausted all legal remedies? If not, at what point does GSA recognize that a transition will occur, and begin the process, give Biden-Harris transition officials get access to office space, etc?

Thanks, Tom You're not the only one with that recollection We did a lot of research before the election and that did not happen in 2000 (even read through old Steve Horne hearing held before the resolution in 2000) We are looking at all of our options and do share your concerns

Bobby,

Kristan circled back with me Their understanding is that: we are working with FPS They’ve spoken with DOJ and the USMS will deputize FPS personnel for the purpose of providing some sort of protection They also understand that we are providing information to the FBI, which the FBI is reviewing for us

Does this track with what you’re hearing?

Good morning Pam,

Two quick questions for you:

- Is Administrator Murphy attending a briefing today with the House Oversight and Appropriations committees, as they requested? Rep Connolly tells TPM that members have not heard back from the GSA
- We've been made aware that the White House prepared (and the DOJ approved before the election) a memo laying out various legal rationale for delaying the start of the transition Can you tell us whether the GSA is relying on any WH/DOJ memo in deciding when to ascertain? If so, can you provide us with the copy of the memo?

As always feel free to call me when you have a moment Thank you very much,

There are limited or no records as concession is not usually documented - typically verbally - in a speech and noted in news etc and GSA does not have records regarding ascertainment letters.

We do plan to have a digital signature which will indicate date and time for the letter for this cycle.

I'm not sure how to research when concession speeches were given (especially the further in the past they are) or how we'd put a time on ascertainment letters, which I presume are simply dated and not time stamped. If no one can figure out how to confirm this stuff, that's okay. If someone has an idea how to confirm, but not the time/resources to do so, that would be helpful to know too.

I've taken Emily off the email as she's functionally unable to check due to the volume of emails she's getting

Couple of things:

- 1 Let's remove the mention of Julie's dad's name With all of the attention we're getting best to leave off family names
- 2 We are not going to do the family pictures we planned to do Same reason as above

Otherwise, looks good

Dear GSA,

On October 8th, 1954, President Dwight D. Eisenhower signed a proclamation declaring November 11th, to be designated as Veterans Day. That same day, President Eisenhower wrote a letter to Harvey Higley, the Administrator of Veterans Affairs. From that letter, we know that President Eisenhower envisioned that the heads of all Executive Branch agencies would work to ensure that we always honor our Veterans, never forgetting their incredible sacrifices and contributions to our country.

This Veterans Day, and everyday, GSA continues to recognize the valuable skills veterans bring to our agency. I am proud to share that 2,638 GSA employees (nearly 23 percent of the GSA workforce) have served in the U.S. military, and many of our senior leaders are veterans. Their experience in the armed services brings many invaluable leadership qualities that strengthen our agency and allows us to respond to the evolving needs of GSA customers in a more effective manner. These qualities include team building, organizational culture, trust, performance, and resilience. Veterans understand how to deliver results. If you know of a veteran who would enjoy working at GSA, please have them search the available jobs here or email GSA's veterans hiring coordinator at hiringvets@gsa.gov.

On a more personal note, I remember learning with pride that my great-grandfather, both grandfathers, six great-uncles, and one great-aunt served during World War II. My own father was born on a Naval Base during that period, and went on to serve in the Navy. Dad told us that he threw passes with Roger Staubach when they were both stationed at the same base in Vietnam. Commissioner Mathews and Commissioner Dunne are also the proud children of Navy veterans, with (b) (6) retiring as a Captain. So while we rightly honor the veterans in our midst at GSA, I'd also encourage you to thank the veterans who inspired so many of us to embrace public service. We are eternally grateful for the heroism, courage, and sacrifice of all our veterans.

To our veterans, their spouses, and their families: thank you for your service. Happy Veterans Day!

Sincerely,
Emily

Bobby,

Emily spoke with Tex Alles today. They discussed her options. It may be possible for FPS to provide a detail at GSA's expense, but he suggested going to the Secret Service first. Apparently, the President can authorize protection.

I'm not sure where to begin with this one. If you or Trent have a good place to start on it, I will let you. If not, I think I'd call Kristin Nevins the Cabinet Secretary and see if she could tell us how to proceed.

Hi, Robert and colleagues—Who handles interview requests for the Administrator? We would very much like to arrange for one of NPR’s hosts to interview ASAP about her role in the presidential transition. It would be a great service to NPR’s audience of 60 million weekly via audio and digital if she could press step through how it all works.

The host will be either Ari Shapiro or Audie Cornish. I will let you know which one as soon we work it out. We would like to get level on his voice between 4:30pm-4:35pm, and he would be all done by 4:45pm. I can let you now exactly how long he will be live tomorrow. It depends on if we want him to hear one of our reporter’s stories first or not. But, generally, these interviews are live for around 5 minutes.

Where will he be? Does he have access to an iPhone? If so, is he willing to use one of the apps for it to make him sound as good as possible?

Thank you very much for this.

To: <emily.murphy@gsa.gov>

Dear Administrator Emily Murphy,

As a supporter of Brady (bradyunited.org), I am urgently asking that you ensure a peaceful transition of power by moving forward to declare Joe Biden the winner of the 2020 election

You have the power to formally begin the transition process, and I am urging you to do so immediately

The lack of a formal declaration has far-reaching implications, and this is a grave matter of national security. Without a clear declaration, the Biden administration does not have access to government agencies, equipment, and tax-payer dollars that are critical to a safe transition of power. And this directly affects Joe Biden's ability to take executive actions on gun violence in his first 100 days in office.

Joe Biden won the election by incredible margins and the American people voted in record numbers-- the highest votes cast for a Presidential candidate ever. We demanded change and unity with our vote, and the will of the people needs to be honored. We are ready to move forward as a country and your inaction is stifling our nation.

I am asking you to honor the will of the people and respect the office that you serve. Please, immediately declare Joe Biden the President-elect and give him access to the critical tools and resources to ensure a smooth, peaceful transition of power.

Sincerely,
(b) (6)

Hi Emily, the ATM helpdesk is getting calls into the GSA Fleet helpline at 1-866-472-6711 requesting assistance regarding an issue you're working on for the President-Elect Biden transition team.

I'm not sure about the details, but is the ATM helpdesk suppose to provide assistance and if so who do they direct the calls to when you aren't available? Can you provide us some detail on what was sent out and if the ATM Helpdesk should assist?

Thanks,
Robin

Trump lost the election, you know there isn't any voter fraud. Refusing to support a peaceful transfer of power is the equivalent of supporting a civil war. We the people will not peacefully stand for such behavior and you know Trump has incited enough skinheads and other racist radicals that they won't stand by either. These two sides will physically fight (with guns if necessary) to support their side. This can not end well and stands a great chance of throwing the US into a bloody battleground. This risk is what you're promoting by encouraging Trump to fight the loss. Please do what is right for our country and help get Trump to accept the loss and give the people a peaceful transfer of power. The US and all it stands for is much greater than any one person's ego. If Trump accepts it and his supporters see this, we all stand a much greater chance of continued peace and confidence in our government. Please help.

Hi Emily,

I'm a reporter for VICE News working on a story about the presidential election and subsequent stalled transition process. I am, along with the rest of the country, wondering what is going on with you and the delay in ascertainment. I'd love to speak with you about what your day-to-day is like at this point, the pressures you're facing, and where you, personally, see the country heading. Please give me a call at (b) (6).

Thank you,

Dear Twat:

The PEOPLE have spoken! Your disgusting p.o.s. boss LOST! Now it is time for you to do YOUR goddamn job and sign the letter to start the transition. All you are accomplishing is doing further damage to this country. Of course, that's probably what a TRAITOR like you most wants. It does not alter the fact that on Jan 20 your ugly, fat ass is unemployed.

SIGN THE LETTER!!!!

Ms Murphy,

Reports continue to circulate that you are refusing to authorize commencement of Presidential Transition. In your role as Administrator of the General Services Administration, this results in a distressing impact on the safety and security of our nation.

It does not matter WHY you are obstructing the peaceful transition to the new President-Elect, but your duty is not to any particular politician but to the United States of America. I am certain you would not wish to be a defendant in any class action litigation that may ensue because of your delays.

Please cease pandering to the person you appointed you as you are jeopardizing the country and most certainly will not be able to be gainfully employed after this stunt. Your future depends on your actions as much as this country does. I also hope that you are not under any delusions that you will be in any way protected by the people behind this.

Please fulfill your duties as is required and stop the partisanship.

Dear Ms. Murphy,

As a young woman I contemplated a career in government but decided, being completely honest with myself, it would behoove me to choose another career path! With the birth of the internet, I have been able to vicariously have a career in government (all kinds of positions too!). I am interested in the women behind the scenes, not just the 'Pelosi's' (always in the press, etc.). Our government would be stronger if more women held significant positions; of this, it is seriously lacking and I believe it is adversely affecting our nation.

Being the Administrator of the GSA is no doubt a very daunting task; especially with the election being disputed, et al. At this moment, however, this country is looking to you with eyes wide open because it is in dire need. Our President has apparently abandoned us; only speaking when it concerns the elections and providing no leadership when Americans are desperately looking to him. Pleas for help and assistance are falling on the deaf ears of a divided, leaderless government leaving its citizens confused and afraid for what is to come. Our country has been deeply wounded and is bleeding profusely; without someone to quickly step up and render aid, we can only fear for the worst. The most frightening thing is the 'unknown' and this is what people are facing; the President, nor the government, is offering guidance to follow, leaving it to the state/local governments. So now starts the flow of information, misinformation, disinformation or whatever. This country needs and is rightfully due, correct & helpful information/guidance during this tumultuous time from its FEDERAL GOVERNMENT and ELECTED OFFICIALS.

I can longer watch the news or read the papers because I am left in a state of complete bewilderment! Food pantries that once only served the homeless & low-income households are now having to feed the middle class because so many are unemployed due to Covid and the community food pantries cannot keep their shelves stocked as they were never intended to be feeding 'the masses'. People with families have lost their jobs, along with health insurance, can no longer pay bills, mortgages or rent and the protections for them not to become homeless/evicted will be ending in just over a month. This country has seen much in 2020! It is NOTHING compared to what will be seen in 2021 because our government is standing still as if it were a deer in the headlights of an oncoming vehicle and our President continues to hide in plain sight, randomly tweeting about firing people and election law suits. In the interim, Covid has been allowed to win the election. Covid is running rampant across the country, ravaging our rural & urban areas leaving hospital systems overwhelmed, understaffed and without enough of basically anything. I do not think I need to continue to tell you about these things as I am sure you are well informed, as all in the Capitol are. That being said, everyone in the Capitol is well aware of the state of affairs for the citizens of the country but NOBODY IN CHARGE WILL DO ANYTHING & NOBODY CAN BEGIN TO TAKE CHARGE TO DO SOMETHING TO HELP.

American citizens have been called upon by their country in extraordinary times throughout American history and asked to extraordinary things. American citizens have always answered the call, whether it be out of duty or a sense of pride, we have rallied and risen to the challenge regardless of personal preferences or differences. This is an extraordinary time in American history, its citizens are calling out to their government to set aside its differences and help the people. Americans voted, President-Elect Biden won the election and as with prior elections so should the transition begin to ensure American citizens will have continuity in their government. Yes, I believe the President has the legal right to request a vote recount and have no problem with that but in the interim the American people should have the full attention of their government which, in the middle of a full-blown pandemic, they do not have. This is an injustice of epic proportions and must be remedied posthaste.

Sometimes in life, we are called upon to do that which we think we cannot do but must do simply because it is the right thing to do. When faced with a situation such as this I turn to my 5Cs Theory. In regards to the endeavor at hand, I ask myself if I am:

Courageous enough to do this?

Confident enough in myself to do this?

Conviction strong enough to know I am doing what is right but maybe not popular?

Clear Conscience so I can sleep at night?

I am 55 years old and still give myself this 'test' when faced with making difficult decisions or getting involved in a situation. I've laughed at myself on occasion thinking 'Oh, again with the 5Cs Theory?! You're way too old!' but the older I get the more I realize this is really what adults need to be asking themselves, not so much teenagers because teenagers tend not to think and can learn from their mistakes. As for adults, my 'test' helps keep our moral compass pointing us to the direction of 'what's right'.

I must tell you; I have done my homework on you Ms. Murphy and I am impressed. You have done the work and your resume speaks volumes. Our government needs more women such as yourself. I've no doubt the matter of 'The Transition' has put you in quite the quandary (or more like quagmire). Not making light of your conundrum, but why not try and put it to the 5C test; you may find just the right answer. I would like to close with a final thought. In the midst of turmoil and conflict in our government, when our elected officials of our chosen parties are failing the people, action must be taken. When a choice is forced, we must choose Country over party. Under no circumstance may we allow our Constitution or Country to be compromised or threatened by terrorists- foreign or domestic.

Thanks kindly for your time. I wish you a most successful career and healthy, happy life.

Be Well,
(b) (6)

Dear GSA,

Over the past several months, I've made a practice of sending you a note or communication every week. This week, I wanted to send you a short note saying that the people of GSA remain constantly in my heart. As we continue to manage through the pandemic, I am so proud of the work that we've accomplished together during some incredible challenges. I remain very honored to work with you. Please stay safe and take care of yourselves.

Warmest regards,

Hello Emily,

My name is Jacquelyn Voghel, and I am a reporter for the Daily Hampshire Gazette in Northampton, Massachusetts. I am writing about criticism from members of your alma mater, Smith College, regarding your inaction on releasing a letter of ascertainment to facilitate President-elect Joe Biden's team in accessing transition resources, and I am reaching out to see if you have a response for these concerns, as well as the additional questions:

Why have you not released a letter of ascertainment thus far?
Do you plan to release a letter of ascertainment? If so, when?

-Jacquelyn

Your sisters in trouble. You better tell her to do the right thing her and a girlfriend or being watched etc. Etc. From what I hear and she is being investigated for what she did in the Trump FBI. She bedded you the right thing why she says his hating she's got millions of people that are very very angry with her. t's just connected her phone in her email, not taking any messages you organization doesn't know what to do with her. So she's in danger because she's not being able to be contacted and if I were her I'd signed the documents and get it over with another job.

Dear GSA,

I have dedicated much of my adult life to public service, and I have always strived to do what is right. As many of you may have known, or recently learned in the news, the GSA Administrator has the unique statutory role of ascertaining the apparent winner in a presidential election, thereby releasing post-election resources and services for use in the event of a presidential transition. Today, pursuant to my duty as the GSA Administrator, I authorized the release of those resources and services so that former Vice President Joe Biden and Senator Kamala Harris can continue their transition activities.

I want you to hear directly from me: I was never pressured with regard to the substance or timing of my decision. The decision was solely mine. I was not directly or indirectly pressured by any Executive Branch official—including those who work at the White House or GSA—to delay this determination or to speed it up. I made this decision independently, based on the law and available facts. My goal at every point has been to uphold the law, understand what my role did and did not encompass, and make the most prudent choice. While today's decision was not easy, I believe it was right, and I stand by it.

Thank you for your ongoing support, it is an honor to lead this incredible agency.

Dear Administrator Murphy,

Your efforts to communicate with your employees throughout this pandemic have been incredible. Every town hall, video and email was eagerly digested and greatly appreciated. I have learned from you how to be professional and personable in a time of crisis. I had no idea the topic of ascertainment would also require your leadership and decision making skills. I feel fortunate as an American and employee to have you at the helm. It has been a privilege to work for you at GSA.

Wishing you and yours a Happy Thanksgiving and well deserved break. Thank you for everything.

Sincerely,
Marcela

Dear GSA,

I have dedicated much of my adult life to public service, and I have always strived to do what is right. As many of you may have known, or recently learned in the news, the GSA Administrator has the unique statutory role of ascertaining the apparent winner in a presidential election, thereby releasing post-election resources and services for use in the event of a presidential transition. Today, pursuant to my duty as the GSA Administrator, I authorized the release of those resources and services so that former Vice President Joe Biden and Senator Kamala Harris can continue their transition activities.

I want you to hear directly from me: I was never pressured with regard to the substance or timing of my decision. The decision was solely mine. I was not directly or indirectly pressured by any Executive Branch official—including those who work at the White House or GSA—to delay this determination or to speed it up. I made this decision independently, based on the law and available facts. My goal at every point has been to uphold the law, understand what my role did and did not encompass, and make the most prudent choice. While today's decision was not easy, I believe it was right, and I stand by it.

Thank you for your ongoing support, it is an honor to lead this incredible agency.
